SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

A. HOLDING A BUDGET HEARING

1. Since the termination of Federal Revenue Sharing (FRS), there exists no legal requirement to hold a public hearing once all FRS funds have been spent. As a matter of public policy, it is strongly recommended that such a hearing be advertised and held, either on the date the tentative budget is approved to be advertised, or at any other meeting prior to final adoption.
2. Until all remaining FRS funds have been expended, the requirements for public notice and public hearing remain in effect: At least ten days prior to the budget hearing, the local government must publish, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the local government's geographic area, a notice of the hearing. ## GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

One of the principles of governmental accounting and financial reporting is that an annual budget should be adopted by every governmental unit. Another principle is that a common terminology should be used consistently throughout the budget, the accounts, and the financial reports of each fund. These principles are reflected in the provisions in the various municipal codes and home rule charters requiring the timely preparation and adoption of an annual budget and reporting it on a form developed by the committee authorized to prepare the form.

The committee has developed and approved this form which incorporates the two principles. This budget form covers all assets, liabilities, fund equities, revenue or income and expenditures or expenses of all budgetary funds and some funds you may not budget.

This budget form covers all types of funds that a local government may have: Governmental, Proprietary, and Fiduciary.

1. Governmental Funds include:
  - a. the General Fund,
  - b. Special Revenue Funds (e.g. special tax fund, Highway Aid Fund, and Revenue Sharing Fund),
  - c. Capital Projects Funds (e.g. General Obligation Bond Funds and Capital Reserve Funds),
  - d. Debt Service Funds (e.g. Sinking Funds), and
  - e. Special Assessment Funds.
2. Proprietary Funds include:
  - a. Enterprise Funds (e.g. Electric Fund, Gas Fund, Water Fund, and Wastewater Fund), and
  - b. Internal Service Funds.
3. Fiduciary Funds include:
  - a. Expendable Trust Funds,
  - b. Non-expendable Trust Funds,
  - c. Pension Trust Funds (e.g. Firefighters Pension Fund, Non-uniformed Employees Pension Fund, and Police Pension Fund), and
  - d. Agency Funds (e.g. Firemen's Relief Fund and Payroll Fund).

Separate columns are provided only for General, Highway Aid, and Revenue Sharing Funds. All other funds for which you must prepare a budget should be added together by type for purposes of this report, although your governing body will have adopted a budget listing each of these as a separate fund. You may not have some of these kinds of funds, or if you do, you may not need to budget some of these kinds of funds. Obviously, you only report those kinds of funds you do have and for which the governing body budgets.

We suggest that you begin your budget by preparing a Schedule W (Working Budget) or a similar form for each of your budgetary funds. To prepare Schedule W, you can make your own with plain paper, columnar paper, or an office copier, or you can have copies printed locally.

Tax totals from the Schedules W then can be transferred to Schedule C, and then totals from both these schedules can be transferred to Schedule A. All amounts may be estimated and appropriated to the nearest dollar.

Schedule A constitutes the uniform budget, which, under the terms of the various municipal codes and home rule charters, should be prepared and made available for public inspection prior to budget adoption. We would suggest that this schedule be accompanied by the Schedule W and a written description of revenue or income and expenditures or expenses be available for public inspection also.

This form also contains the appropriation ordinance, resolution, or motion by means of which the budget is finally adopted at the end of the designated public inspection period. The required tax levy ordinance or resolution is also included in this form.

Within fifteen (15) days after final adoption of the budget, one copy of it should be filed with:
